

Four Of The Best New Hotels In Manhattan, New York

New York has hundreds of hotels, with more opening every year, some brand new, others renovations of established favorites. Here are four of the best, hottest new openings of 2022.

The Ritz-Carlton New York, NoMad

View from The Ritz-Carlton New York, NoMad RITZ-CARLTON

New to midtown is the Ritz-Carlton New York NoMad, near Madison Square Park. The 50-floor building, designed by architect Rafael Viñoly, has 219 luxurious guestrooms, including 31 suites. The top Ritz-Carlton Suite is spectacular. Covering 2,100-square feet with stunning 360 degree views, the suite features a private wellness room, separate living and dining areas, a media room and a massive walk-in closet.

Madison Suite Living Room, Ritz-Carlton RITZ-CARLTON

All rooms and suites have Frette 400-thread count linens. Terrazzo marble bathrooms have fancy bathroom amenities by French brand Diptyque. A Spa, with eight treatment rooms, sauna, steam room and a well-equipped gym, is below the lobby. The food and drink offering includes the Ritz-Carlton Club Lounge upstairs on the 36th floor with breakfast, snacks and drinks for Ritz-Carlton members and anyone in a club level room. And on the ground floor, all-day dining is at chic Zaytinya with a Mediterranean mezze menu by award-winning Chef José Andrés. Nubeluz, the just opened rooftop bar on the 50th floor features spectacular views of the Manhattan skyline making this one of the city's highest and best rooftops.